

English Essay

The important event in the book was the bombing in the Dugdale mall.

This was important because it was to do with Callum's dad and older brother Jude as they are a part of the Liberation militia.

This event was also important because ~~Ryan~~ Ryan was taken to court as Callum's dad he admitted to it but then denied it when he was in court. So instead of death he was sentenced to a life time imprisonment.

This event had a negative effect on the whole McGregor family as Ryan the father was being accused of the incident by going to prison for his life. Yes but be more specific. who was affected and how?

This event had a positive effect on a majority of Crosses as they feel relieved that Ryan was sent to imprisonment as they believe he murdered seven fellow Crosses.

This event had a negative effect on ~~a~~ Sephy as she was ^{previously} friends with Callum and didn't want his dad to go to prison as it will ruin the McGregor family's life.

Matthew Shelley

① This event was important because ... it symbolises the nothings/the underclass trying to be heard, to make an attempt at having themselves noticed.
